8 Frequently Asked Questions

1 Introduction

Public examinations can be a stressful time for students and parents, so it's important that all those involved are as well informed as possible.

Well-informed students will realise that the rules and regulations are designed to ensure fairness and minimise disturbance.

This booklet is intended to inform you about examination processes and procedures and to answer some of the frequently asked questions. Hopefully, it will prove informative and helpful for you and your parents. Please read it carefully and share with your parents so that they are also aware of the examination regulations and procedures.

The awarding bodies/examination set down strict criteria which must be followed for the conduct of examinations and Ta'allum Academies are required to follow them precisely. You should therefore, pay particular attention to the JCQ 'information for Candidates' and the 'Warning to Candidates' notices which are on the following pages.

Some of the questions you may have are answered at the back of this booklet. If there is anything you do not understand or any questions that have not been addressed, please ask the Exams Officer. If you or your parents have any queries or need help or advice at any time before, during or after the examinations please contact:

Examination Boards:

Ta'allum Academies use the following Examination boards: Edexcel and Cambridge

Timetables

All candidates receive an individual timetable from the school showing your own specific examinations with details of the date, time and duration. Once you receive it, check it carefully. If you think something is wrong, see the Exams Officer immediately.

You must also check that all personal details (date of birth, spelling of names) are accurate as these will appear on certificates and it may be difficult to change them once certificates are awarded. You will also receive an individual timetable.

A few candidates may have a clash where two exams are timetabled at the same time. The school will make special timetable arrangements for these candidates. You must check your individual timetable and see the Exams Officer if you're unsure of what to do. If you think there is a clash on your timetable that has not been resolved, please see the Exams Officer immediately.

Candidate name

Candidates are entered under the name format of first name + middle name + (legal) surname e.g. Abdulla Jassim Al Maadeed. Candidates must use their legal name on all exam documentation even if they use a different name in school for all other purpose. The reason for this is that exam certificates are legal documents.

Candidate Number

Each candidate has a four - digit candidate number. This is the number you will enter on examination papers. It is shown on the top of your statement of entry however you don't need to worry about remembering it as it will be on a card on your exam desk.

UCI Number

In addition to a candidate number, each candidate must have a Unique Candidate Identify (11 numbers and 2 letters) which is shown on the top of statements of entry. This number will usually begin with the school centre number (insert as appropriate) unless you have transferred from another school that had already issued you with your UCI. Your UCI is used for administration purposes and it is not necessary for you to remember it.

4 During the examinations

Examination Regulations

A copy of the 'Information for Candidates', which is issued by JCQ on behalf of the Awarded bodies, is printed at the front of this booklet. All candidates must read this carefully and note that to break any of the examination rules or regulations could lead to disqualification from all subjects. The school must report any breach of regulations to the Awarding Body.

Attendance at Examinations:

- Students must sign in and out daily at reception when attending for examinations
- In Ta'allum Academies, examinations start at times in line with the English system. This is to ensure the security and integrity of the examinations. Morning examinations usually start at 9.30am and afternoon examinations usually start at 2.30 and 4.30pm. Please check all times carefully.

- Candidates are responsible for checking their own timetables and arriving at school on the correct date and time. Candidates should arrive at least 15 minutes prior to the start of their examination.
- Full school uniform must be worn by all students.
- Jackets, Abayas, bags and personal belongings must be left outside the exam room. We cannot guarantee the security of your personal belongings, bags and personal items left outside the exam room. You are advised to make use of your school locker.
- If you bring your own equipment it must be visible to the invigilators at all times. You must either use a transparent pencil case or clear plastic bag. Pens must be black and correction pens are not allowed.
- If you bring your own calculator to exams, candidates should make sure their calculators conform to the examinations regulations. Remove any cover or instructions and make sure batteries are new.
- Examination regulations are very strict regarding items that may be taken into the examination room (please see 'Information for Candidates' at the front of this booklet). If you break these rules it could result in disqualification.
- You must sit at the correct desk according to the seating plan. You will be notified of your seat number and this will be indicated on the desk.
- Mobile phones MUST NOT BE BROUGHT INTO THE EXAMINATION ROOM. If a mobile (or any other type of electronic communication or storage device) is found in your possession during an examination (even if it is turned off) it will be taken from you and a report made to the appropriate Awarding body with disqualification a likely consequence.
- Do not attempt to communicate with or distract other candidates.

- No food is allowed in the examination room (with the exception of students with a medical condition – please see the Exams Officer if further clarification is needed).
- Bottles of water may be taken into the examination room however they must be clear without any labels.
- Do not write on the examination desk.
- Do not draw graffiti or write offensive comments on the examination paper – if you do, the exam board will refuse to accept your paper.
- Listen carefully to instructions and notices read out by the invigilator – there may be amendments to the exam paper that you need to know about.
- Check that you have the correct exam paper – check the subject, unit and tier.
- Read all instructions carefully and number your answers clearly.
- Candidates must stay in the examination room for the whole duration of the examination. If you have finished the paper use any time remaining to check over your answers and ensure you have completed your details correctly.
- At the end of the examination all work must be handed in – remember to cross out any rough work. If you have more than one answer book or loose sheets of paper ask for a tag to fasten them in the correct order. Also ensure your name and candidate number is written on each additional piece of paper.
- Invigilators will collect your exam paper before you leave the room. Absolute silence must be maintained during this time.

- Remain seated in silence until told to leave the examination room. Please leave the room in silence and show consideration for other candidates who may still be working.
- If the fire alarm sounds during the examination the invigilator will tell you what to do. Please do not panic. If you have to evacuate the room you will be asked to leave in silence and in the order in which you are sitting. Leave everything on the desk. You must not attempt to communicate with anyone else during the evacuation. When you return to the exam room do not start writing until the invigilator tells you to. You will be allowed the full working time for the examination and a report will be sent to the awarding bodies detailing the incident.

Invigilators:

- The school uses a range of staff invigilators to conduct the examinations. Students are expected to behave in a respectful manner towards all invigilators and follow their instructions at all times.
- Invigilators are in the examination rooms to supervise the conduct of the examination. They will distribute and collect the examination papers, tell candidates when to start and finish the examination, hand out extra paper if required and deal with any problems that occur, for example if a candidate feels ill.
- Please note that invigilators cannot discuss the examination paper with you or explain the questions.

5 Absence from examinations:

- If you experience difficulties during the examination period (e.g. illness, injury, and personal problems) please inform the school at the earliest point so we can help or advise you.
- Only in 'exceptional circumstances' are candidates allowed special consideration for absence from part of an examination. It is essential that medical or other appropriate evidence is obtained on the day of the difficulty. The candidate/parent must produce this without delay in all cases where an application is to be made for special consideration. Please note that feeling stressed or unwell does not qualify for Special Consideration.
- For the award of a grade by Special Consideration, the candidate must have completed a certain amount of external assessment. This would include the examination and/or coursework/controlled assessment.
- If you are ill or going to be late on the day of your exam, you or your family should notify the school immediately on (insert telephone number)
- If you are unable to attend due to illness you or your family must complete a self-certification form (available from the Exams Officer) as soon as possible. This must give specific information about why you could not sit the paper. Without this the exam boards will not issue final grades for the missed paper.

6 Exam check list

- Aim to arrive at school 15 minutes prior to an exam AT LEAST. It is much better to leave yourself a safety margin on timings in case of problems with the journey.

- When taking exams, bags and coats should be left in the cloakroom/lockers.
- There is absolutely no talking or communication between students once you enter the exam hall. If you have any questions, you should raise your hand once seated and an invigilator will come see you.
- Please dress sensibly for the exam. Temperature in the exam room can fluctuate in May and June.
- No food allowed on the exam hall (if you have a special requirement – please see the Exam Officer before the exam).
- Water bottles are allowed in the exam hall if necessary. These should be clear bottles with a spill-proof cap. There should be no label on the bottle.

8 Frequently Asked Questions

Q. What do I do if there's a clash on my timetable?

The school will reschedule exams internally (on the same day) where there is a clash of exam papers. If the exams do not exceed three hours in duration then candidates will sit one paper after the other. If they exceed three hours then candidates will sit one paper in the morning and the other in the afternoon. In these circumstances, candidates will be supervised and must not have any communication with other candidates. If you have any queries please ask the Exam Officer.

Q. What do I do if think I have the wrong paper?

The Invigilator will ask you to check before the exam starts. If you think something is wrong put your hand up and tell an invigilator immediately.

Q. What do I do if I forget the school Centre Number?

The Centre number is (insert number) for Edexcel and (insert number) for Cambridge. It will be clearly displayed in the examination venue.

Q. What do I do if I have an accident or I am ill before the exam?

Inform the school at the earliest possible point so we can help or advise you. In the case of an accident that means you are unable to write it may be possible to provide you with a scribe to write your answers but will need as much prior notice as possible.

You will need to obtain medical evidence (from your GP or hospital) if you wish the school to make an appeal for Special Consideration on your behalf (see below).

Q. What is an Appeal for special consideration?

Special consideration is an adjustment to the marks or grades of a candidate who is eligible for consideration. The allowance for special Consideration is from 0% (consideration given but addition of marks considered inappropriate) to 5% (reserved for exceptional cases). Parents should be aware that any adjustment is likely to be small and no feedback is ever provided. Candidates will only be eligible for special consideration if they have fully prepared and covered the whole course by performance in the examination or in the production of coursework is affected by adverse circumstances beyond their control. Examples of such circumstances may be illness, accident or injury, bereavement, domestic crisis. The examinations officer must be informed immediately, so that necessary paperwork can be completed and the candidate will be required to provide evidence to support such application.

Q. What do I do if I fall ill during the exam?

Put your hand up and an invigilator will assist you. You should inform an invigilator if you feel ill before, or during an exam and if you feel this may have affected your performance.

Q. If I am late can I still sit the examination?

Provided you are not more than 1 hour late, it may still be possible for you to sit the examination. You should get to school as quickly as possible and report to Reception. A member of staff will escort you to the exam venue.

You must not enter an examination venue without permission after an examination has begun.

Q. If I miss the examination can I take it another day?

No. Timetables are regulated by the examination boards and you may only attend on the given date and time.

Q. Do I have to wear school uniform?

Yes. Normal school regulations apply to uniform.

Q. Why can't I bring my mobile into the exam room?

Being in possession of a mobile phone (or any other electronic communication device, e.g. iPod, headphones, MP3 players) is regarded as cheating and is subject to severe penalty from the awarding bodies. Besides it is against our school rules to bring a mobile phone to school at any time.

Q. How do I know how long the exam is?

The length of the examination is shown on your individual timetable under the heading 'Duration'. The Invigilator will tell you when to start and finish the exam. They will write the finish time of the exam on a flip chart or board.
